UXBRIDGE YOUTH

Welcome to Uxbridge Football Club and all the staff, players and officials from Newport County

It's been some years since I've taken to writing some programme notes. I believe the last time was when we had some success in the FA youth Cup back in 2010 when we went out to AFC Wimbledon.

Our squad this year has had a great run in this year's tournament overcoming Brimsdown, Hanwell Town, Knaphill and Sutton Common Rovers, some really tough matches. However, Newport County being a football league club will present us with an enormous challenge.

It must be mentioned that our improvement and progress this season would not have been possible without the hard work of my two coaches Shaun Ryan and Jordan Berry both have really put in extra time and effort since the end of June which I believe we are all benefiting from. Along with our move to The Isthmian Youth League which has pushed the players much harder.

At the end of the day it's the players who have performed consistently well this year so far and exceeded our expectations. We won't be getting carried away with ourselves though.

The squad has been supported by our talented partner club Sandgate Youth FC and this year's Sandgate /Uxbridge Under 16 squad are pressing the older boys all the way creating a fantastic competitive environment.

Well that just leaves me to ask you to get behind the boy's tonight opportunities like this don't come around too often so well make the most of it

Our normal league matches are on a Monday evening so hopefully you might like to pop down and see us again or perhaps the new look First team Under new Manager Danny Edwards on a Saturday afternoon.

All the best

ABOUT THE FA YOUTH CUP

The Football Association launched The FA Youth Cup in 1952, following the success of The FA County Youth Cup competition which had been set up seven years earlier.

With talented school leavers finding it hard to break immediately into senior football, The Youth Cup was seen as an ideal breeding ground for the football stars of the future.

Initially, many clubs did not have an organised youth structure but today all clubs, both League and non-League, have realised the importance of nurturing future talent. Hence the depth and breadth of the 400-plus entrants.

To qualify for The Youth Cup, teams must play in a Youth League, or equivalent competition, and must be fully integrated within the main structure of the senior club. The players selected must be under 18 at midnight on 31 August in the current season. Players of the calibre of George Best, Paul Gascoigne, David Beckham and Michael Owen have all played in FA Youth Cup-winning sides.

Manchester United have won The Youth Cup a record 10 times, and last lifted the trophy in 2011.

Generally, it has been the big clubs with the most sophisticated youth set-ups and advanced recruitment techniques that dominate The Youth Cup's list of winners. Chelsea have been the pre-eminent force of late, winning five of the last seven Finals.

The highest aggregate score for The Final is the 9-0 thrashing that West Ham United – with Joe Cole and Michael Carrick – handed out to Coventry City in 1999. A full house at Upton Park saw the rampant Young Hammers win the second leg 6-0 before the live Sky cameras.
